Hello Friend

Wow, thank you so much for having an interest in my work! It truly means a lot to me, I pride myself in creating art from your ideas! Becoming a mother for the first time (or again) can be such a worldwind of emotions, it's exciting and scary all at once, the day of your maternity session should be a relaxing day for you, in fact I wouldn't have it any other way! We are a stress free zone!

As a mother myself I missed out on maternity photos and I regret it constantly, and I know it's something I can't look back on or pass down. I want you to have gorgeous photographs for you and your loved ones to cherish.

ONE

Hair and Makeup

We start at 9:00am to ensure enough time to do all the poses and wardrobe changes. The first step is hair and makeup where Mistie the talented makeup artist coaches you on what will complement you best

TWO

The Session

the selection of outfits made prior will be lined up for you to change into and we start! Don't worry I will guide you from pose to pose. Trust me when I tell you everyone's nervous and their main concern is I don't know how to pose, There's nothing to worry about, I got you!

THREE

The Reveal

After the session your free for about an hour or so, feel free to grab a lunch or browse the shops around! When you come back to the studio we go over all my selected photos with some minor editing done. From there you only choose what you love.

THE EXPERIENCE

Preperation

In preparation for your maternity session you definitely want to remember key things, some light stretches the night before or morning of is highly recommended. A good night sleep and hydration is key to glowing skin for your day! Remember to not try and new skin care products that could cause a breakout or irritation.

“Will I be nude?”

if nude is an option for your session do your normal routine, if you normally shave your legs, have your legs shaved! Moisturizer is a great way to keep skin looking glowing, however stay away from the breasts (the nipple covers will not stick properly). Another this to advise against is self tan, if you are interested in wearing any studio wardrobe self tan is not permitted.

“What should I bring?”

Black, white, and nude bra and underwear! It's very important to have verity just in case! Even though the studio had tons of cloths to choose from, your favourite pair of jeans never hurts! Most of my session are barefoot but if your a shoe girl please feel free to bring a few clean pairs! other than that bring your smile!

”What should I wear there” where your most comfortable cloths! Have your face prepped with your regular skincare and moisturizer and hair should be clean and dry! Try not to wear any tight fitting clothing including tight socks, hair elastics around the wrist or tight bras the day before and day of your session!

Thank you so much for being prepped and ready for the most glamorous portrait shoot ever!
